HATES CHICKENS AND COWS TOO

Woman's Story Will Hold Interest for Thousands of People Everywhere

"I hate the cows and chickens," said Mrs. Ettie Edwards, of 310 Mill street, Lockland, O., in paraphrase of a popular song of the cabarets.

"I have lived on eggs and milk for so long that I just can't look at a hen or a cow with friendly eyes," she explained languidly.

When one's diet is restricted to the products of our friends of the barnyard for weeks and then months, it is like suddenly stepping into a little paradise of content to find all of the good things of former days back on your own bill of fare.

Mrs. Edwards' story will hold interest for thousands of men and women who would welcome, as she did, freedom from a diet.

"I have long been a sufferer from stomach trouble," she explained. "I paid in pain for every meal I ate.
There was the daily headache that appeared soon after breakfast, and stayed for lunch and supper. My sleep, after the hours of suffering, was broken and gave me no real rest. I had no energy, was tired all the time and life was just long days of discontent."

"In the hope of improving I began the diet of boiled milk and boiled eggs. And I was faithful. For weeks I kept this diet and I did improve some under it, but I was not being cured, I realized.

"Now my stomach is a great deal better. I can eat almost anything without ill effects. I am too thankful to depart from plainly cooked food yet, however. But my appetite is good, my sleep is sound and refreshing, and my housework is no longer an irritating, difficult task.

"The reason? I have taken Tanlac, the Master Medicine. So why should I hesitate to recommend it to anyone or everyone who suffers as I did.

Throughout the country there are more than 1,000,000 people who will say, as does Mrs. Edwards, that there is no medicine that acts so favorably on ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys or catarrhal affections, or is so good a tonic, appetizer and invigorant as Tanlac.

Tanlac may be obtained in the following nearby towns: Earlington,

VIRGINIA GIRL

Gained 15 Pounds By Taking Vinol Norfolk, Va.—"I suffered from nervousness, had no appetite and was very thin. Nothing I took seemed to help me until one day a friend told me about Vinol.
I have now taken six bottles and have gained fifteen pounds; have a good appetite and can eat anything."—MATTIE DANFORD, Norfolk, Va.

Vinol is a delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, a constitutional remedy which creates an appetite, aids digestion and makes pure healthy blood. Try it

High School Notes

By Our High School Correspondents

In Memoriam

A desk in our school room is vacant, Deep in our hearts it is bare Our dearest and loveliest classmate Has left us and gone over there.

No more will her beautiful laughter Ring forth while at play, as of yore With us, her friends and companions She will walk here on earth, never more.

Her bright eyes are closed now forever The voice that we loved is still,
She has answered the call of the master Leaving vacant a place none can fill A mother, a father, a brother, Behind her in grief she has left, But God in his goodness and mercy Will comfort the hearts thus bereft.

She is now an angel in heaven;
Her trials on earth are done,
She has fought the final great battle, Through God's love she has won.

We can only trust to meet her On the summit of the hill, O for the touch of a vanished hand, A sound of the voice that is still.

Beloved Classmate Laid to Rest

The remains of our classmate and friend, Miss Geneva Hart, were laid to rest in the Christian Privilege Cemetery at St. Charles last Sunday.

A large number of students together with Miss Howard and Supt. Dudley and the Senior class of which she was a member attended the burial.

We greatly lament the loss of our classmate and feel that our loss is her gain. A short memorial service was held at chapel Monday morning. Suitable resolutions for the faculty, Seniors and school were adopted and mailed to her parents.
Our school feels keenly its loss.
Geneva was a lovable pupil and school mate and as such was loved by all and now all lament her death and mourn with her friends.

Dr. Crossfield, President of the Transylvania College of Lexington, Ky., addressed the high school pupils last Wednesday morning. His subject was on "Preparedness", not as much for the defense of the nation, as in preparing the young people of today to cope with the world's problems. His subject was such as held the attention of each boy and girl throughout his entire talk.

Dr. Crossfield addressed the graduating class of 1914 at this place, and we did not consider him at all a stranger.

Dr. Crossfield showed by proofs that it was possible for a boy to complete a course in college, with sufficient determination, on only about $10 in money. At this rate even the Juniors might be able to realize their overpowering ambition of a college course.

The school was honored by the presence of Rev. Brandon, who was formerly pastor at this place, now pastor of the M. E. church at Princeton Ky. Rev. Brandon made a very interesting talk on the subject of "character." His talk was greatly enjoyed by all, and he has the assurance of always being a very welcome guest.
Come again Reverend, we appreciate your talks.

Dan M. Evans was a welcome visitor in the school Wednesday.
We hope he will come again, his presence is always encouraging.

The boys have reversed the order of games with Princeton, and Princeton, with her splendid team will be here on Saturday, Apr. 29. Game called at 2.30 and it is hoped that the people will turn out and give the boys good support in their game.

Ball game Saturday at 2.30 E. H. S. vs. P. H. S. We'll win!

"Pop-Eyed Time."

"Hello Bill, where you going." "To the ball game between E.
H. S. and P. H. S. of course."
"That's the 'Pop-Eyed time' come on we'll have to hurry."
